Wildflower Launches E-Commerce Website for CBD Product Line throughout the US

VANCOUVER, British Columbia, June 20, 2017: Wildflower Marijuana Inc. (CSE: SUN) (FWB: RSP) ("Wildflower" or the "Company") announces the launch of its e-commerce website. Wildflower is proud to offer consumers a secure on-line payment platform for its full line of CBD (Cannabidiol) based products. Initial e-commerce will focus on the US market where CBD products are legal for sale and transport throughout the United States. This will mark the first of multiple on-line initiatives the Company plans on launching.

Wildflower's website www.wildflowerus.com is now fully operational and ready to take orders. Our on-line platform will allow the Company to work with affiliate partners to expand Wildflower's on-line presence rapidly which provide for improved margins over traditional retail distribution.

The Company will unveil the marketing of the new website in future news releases and partnerships with other highly trafficked cannabis websites are being examined.

Wildflower CEO, William MacLean stated, "As the cannabis industry becomes more mainstream opportunities of going to market are becoming more accessible. Being able to penetrate the on-line market is a significant milestone for Wildflower."
